

Volunteer and Service Opportunities for the Office of the Vice President - Research and Standards

College of Performance Management: Practice Symposia Evaluator

The Office of the Vice President – Research and Standards has openings for evaluators of proposed Practice Symposia topics for the Integrated Program Management (IPM) Workshop and for EVM World.

Responsibilities include working with the VP-Research and Standards to:

- Finalize the planned Practice Symposia Tracks and speaker commitments
- Evaluate and rank submitted abstracts
- Provide input to finalize Tracks

This is a great opportunity for individuals to contribute objective feedback at their convenience to aid in the abstract selection process and to shape the Tracks at the events.

The position is to support a single specific IPM Workshop or EVM World. Evaluators are more than welcome to serve in this role for several events with the goal of continuously improving the quality of the event. The estimated time commitment is a total of four to eight hours. Evaluators will be able to fulfill this role at their convenience over a couple of week time period. The number of evaluators for this role is unlimited. While it is preferred that evaluators are members of CPM, membership is not required.
